6/16/2015 — For many, life is like a sheet of music. The piece begins with a tone, a key and a pace, usually dependent on nearby influences.

However, as time goes on, the tune changes, the tempo may slow or quicken, and before long, the song may have become something else entirely.

For one rapping NCO at the 733rd Air Mobility Squadron, his rhythm altered the day he took the Oath of Enlistment and
